2. Old Business
 - a. None.
3. New Business
 - a. Rule 10.21
 - i. After some discussion, motion to reject the rule change proposal – Angie Hill Price; seconded by – Rita Moyes.
 - b. Discussion topic: Should there be a limit as to how many times the Rules & Regulations Committee entertains submissions on the same topic within a semester. A year? (e.g., Rule 15 Graduation with Latin Honors)
 - i. After a positive and comprehensive discussion, the Committee agreed on the following:
 1. Campus members (e.g., students, staff, faculty) will not be discouraged from submitting rule change proposals.
 2. Rule change proposals that focus on the same or similar specific change(s) in the wording of a rule will be reviewed only once each academic calendar year.
 3. The Chair of the Rules & Regulations Committee will screen the submitted proposals each month to determine if the rule change proposals need to move forward to the entire committee for the next meeting. Rule change proposals that are the same or similar to other proposals that have been submitted within the academic calendar year will be returned to the submitter with an explanation from the Chair.
 4. Rule change proposals that are submitted on the same topic but support different changes to the verbiage of the rule, will move forward to the entire committee for review.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:47pm.

Motion to adjourn – Joe Dannenbaum; Second – Meghan Hein.
